CLASSES . . .

Many an English student at Lamar has become a Shakespearean enthusiast after listening, as these students are, to the school's superb records of Macbeth's soliloquies delivered by Maurice Evans.

Perhaps a future Bill Stern will be developed through use of the excellent facilities found in the drama department for recording and radio work.

Are you familiar with cylinders or the problems of the Archimedian Solid? If not, follow these students to the math department and have the mysteries of solid geometry explained.

A civics class applies a portion of what it learned concerning the Bill of Rights, the right of Freedom of Speech, as it conducts an open discussion of social problems concerning the family.

The adage, "One picture is worth a thousand words," has its practical application in Lamar's Latin classes where models of Roman arms and armour enliven the stories of Caesar's wars.

The difficulties of the irregular verb and the use of the subjunctive account for the looks of concentration upon the faces of these students in a typical Spanish class at Lamar.

"Is this ancient alchemy or modern chemistry?" query these students as they watch the complex preparations for a demonstration experiment about to be conducted in Lamar's chemistry laboratory.

A complete world of minute organisms suddenly appears before the eyes of these biology students as they bring their microscopes into focus upon the specimens of muddy water they are examining.

FACULTY . . .

"Right shoulder arms!" comes the command which these R.O.T.C. students are about to follow during practice in drilling, one part of the extensive military training Lamar's cadets receive.

Music! Music! Music! certainly fills the halls at Lamar. In addition to regular classes such as this, there are two organized choruses, the Girls' Chorus and the Mixed Chorus.

No one can say that the field of commercial arts is neglected at Lamar. As proof here are typing students busily at work trying to improve their accuracy and speed.

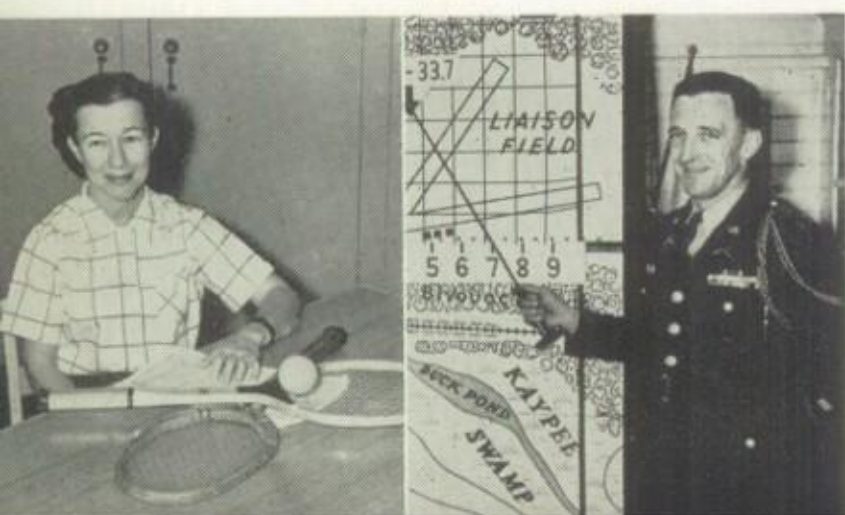

Lamar girls find that physical education courses have certainly changed since mother was a girl. Here, for instance, these girls are practicing for a test in First Aid, a regular part of their gym training.

CLASSES

Lamar recognizes the fact that manual training is a phase of education not to be overlooked. Here a student is at work in Lamar's newly built and equipped shop.

Art is one subject that is as much fun as work. Here a group of students are busily working on one of their projects, the construction of paper mache figures.

Lucky is the man who marries one of these girls, for she will certainly be an experienced chef after finishing the cooking course offered by Lamar's home economics department.

As busy as bees but twice as clever are these girls at work in one of Lamar's classes in sewing, just another phase of home economics instruction.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Lamar Chapter of the National Honor Society strives to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate a desire to render service to the school, promote worthy leadership, and encourage the development of character.

Any student in Lamar who is a high junior or a senior, has a 4.2 scholarship average, and has a good record of service and leadership is eligible.

The club was led this year by Dick Mayor, president; Earle Martin, vice-president; Jane Lawhon, secretary; and Tom Biggs, treasurer. Mr. W. J. Moyes is the sponsor.

Officers: Tom Biggs, treasurer; Dick Mayor, president; Earle Martin, vice-president; Jane Lawhon, secretary.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Mr. Moyes discusses the problems of the Student Council with Mrs. Porter, sponsor, and the officers, Helen Riddick, treasurer; Jim Whitson, president; Elsa Jean Holland, secretary; and Mary Coy, vice-president.

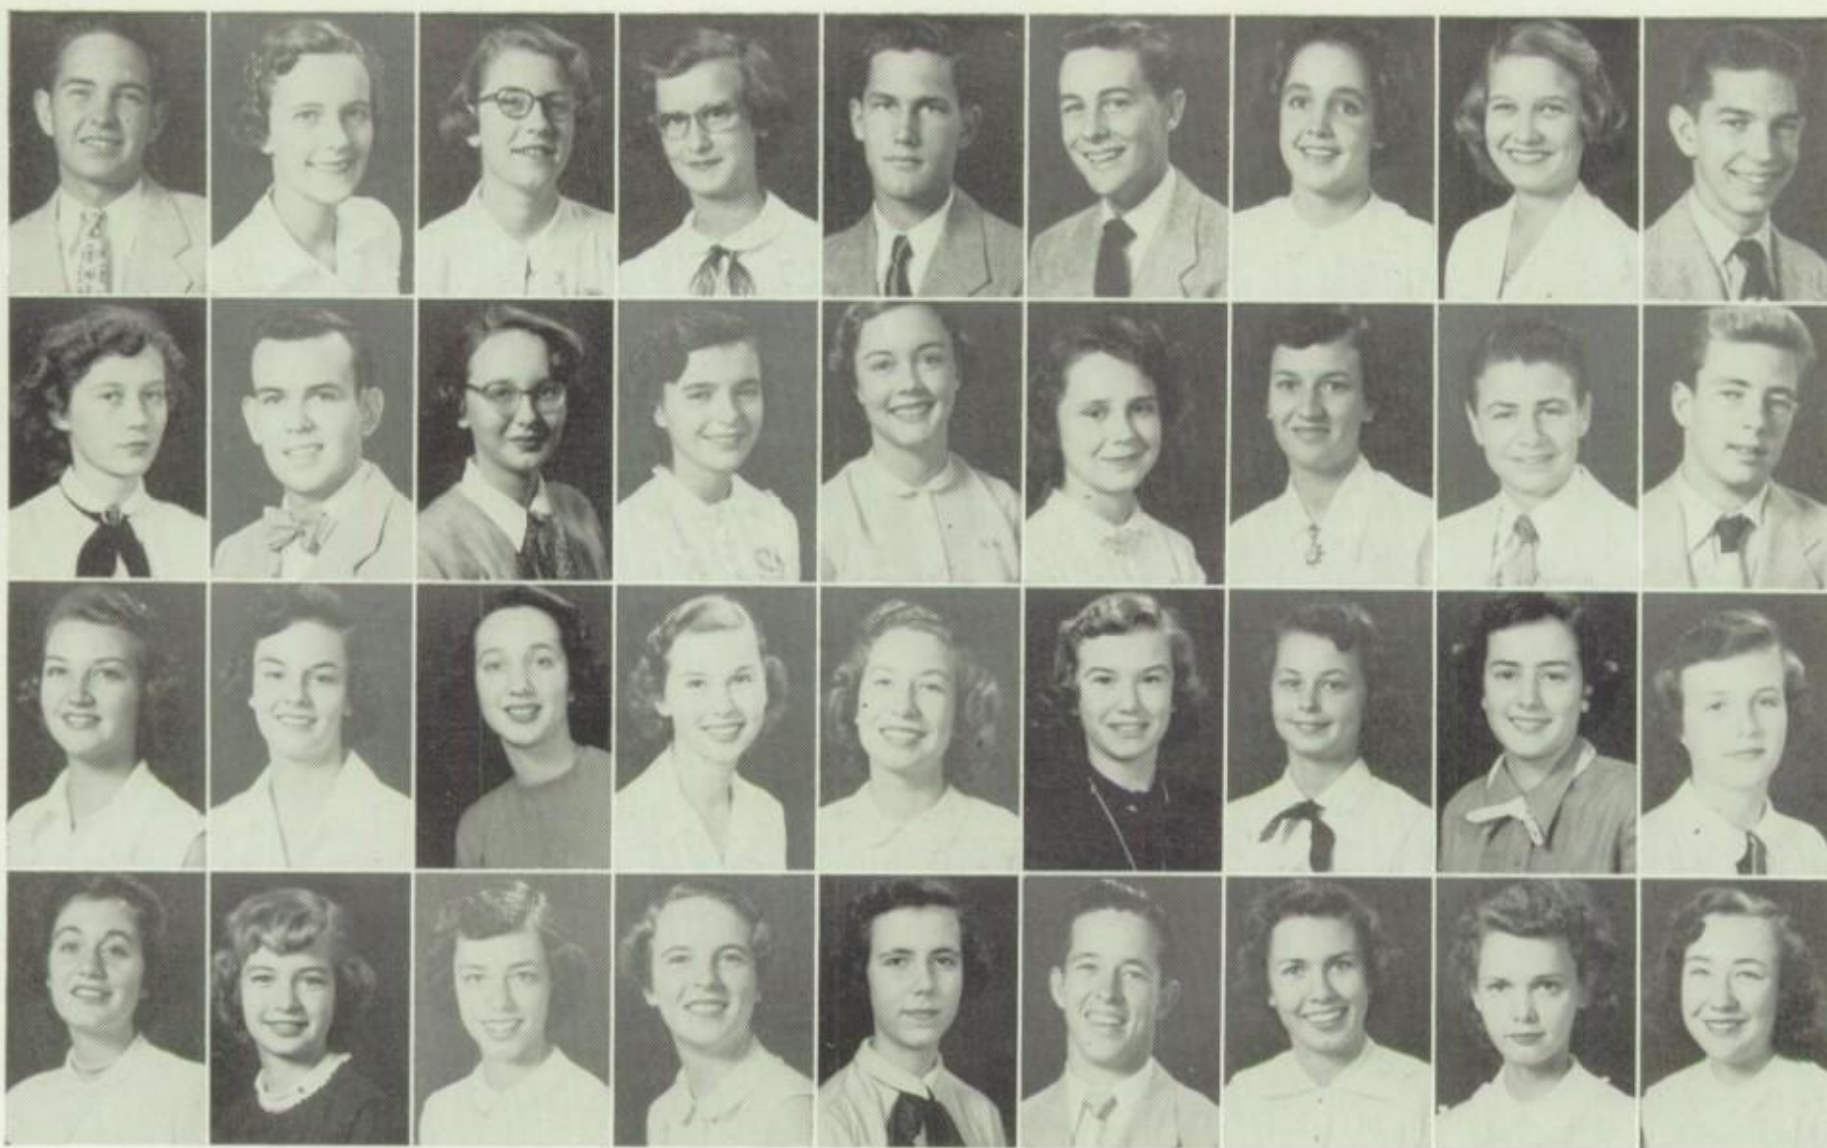

The Student Council, composed of representatives from the homerooms, is Lamar's governing body of students. The activities of the Council are so many that it is surprising that one group can accomplish so much. Among these activities are publishing the student directory, supervising all the school elections, sponsoring the Red Cross, the Lamar Library, and the Community Chest Drives, conducting the drive for Orenda subscriptions, supervising the posters on display throughout the school, amending and submitting new club charters for approval, and presenting scholarship merit awards to the students making all A's. Leading the Council this year is Jim Whitson, president; Mary Coy, vice-president; Elsa Holland, secretary; Helen Riddick, treasurer; and Mrs. E. Porter, sponsor.

Election Committee—Counting votes for May Queen are Mary Beth James, Gus Schill, and Myrtle McPhail.

Poster Committee—Joyce Gibson, Pat Staats, and Sandra White approve the poster display in front of the library.

Charter Committee—Looking over a new Club's charter are Edda Kennedy, Bobby Doty, and Brad Thompson.

Mary Petersen, Assistant Club Editor, pauses momentarily in her search through the files for a missing picture.

The identification of pictures is only one of the many duties assigned to busy Club Editor Helen Riddick.

Perhaps Assistant Editor Bill Wilde is thinking of the pictures he wants to include in the Life Section.

Art Editor Nancie Sweeton tells us that fastening the paper to the easel is only the first step in making a sketch for the Orenda.

Bruce Green and Stanley Silvus busily wield their razor blade and ruler in order to meet an early mounting deadline.

Tom Biggs, Sports Editor, is happy in knowing that when he has finished mounting these proofs his section will be complete.

Joan Smith begins the seemingly vast and endless job of checking receipts. This is, however, only one of the jobs she must handle in her capacity as circulation manager.

The always difficult task of balancing a budget falls upon the wide, capable shoulders of George Wilson who is Business Manager of the 1951 OREDA.

(Not in picture, Evelyn Gittings)

Dick Mayor works ably and efficiently to paste, place, and cut row after row of club pictures.

Typist Elsa Jean Holland smiles happily as she watches the pile of typed material on her desk slowly grow.

Photographer Emery Griffin quickly checks his camera in preparation for making still another group of pictures.

Jane Lawhon works steadily to finish the many tasks she must complete in her dual role as Associate Editor and Class Editor.

Gregory Catlow and Barbara Bouldin, members of the Business Staff, gleefully count the money received for subscriptions.

Assistant Class Editor Rit Webb scans an old annual for a solution to a problem involving the Junior and Sophomore Class Sections.

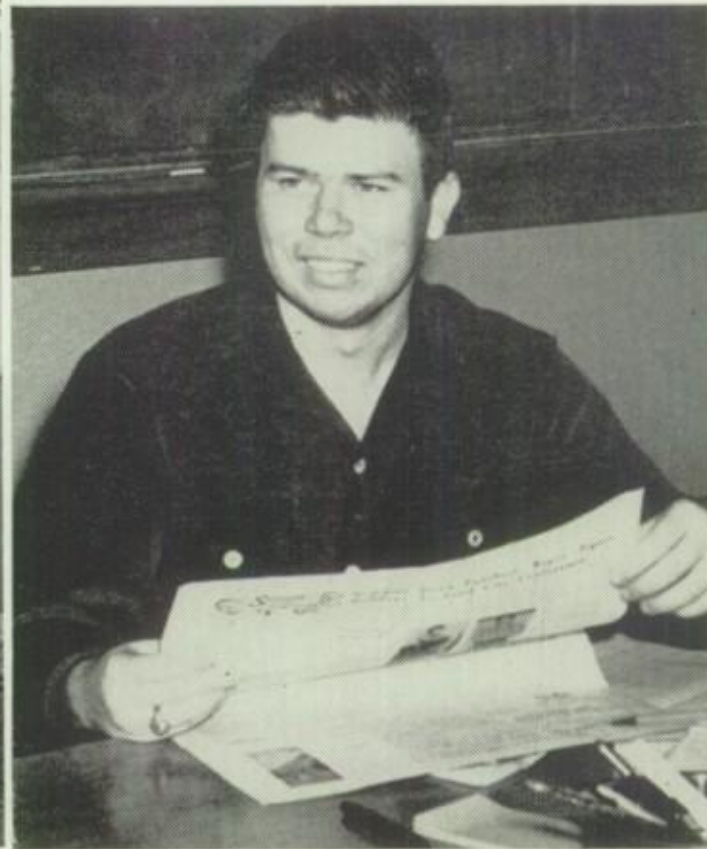

"DEADLINE FRIDAY!" This warning scrawled on the blackboard identifies room 336 as the Lancer room, where Lamar's budding journalists are hard at work, gathering news, checking copy, planning makeup, and writing headlines.

QUILL and SCROLL

Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, was organized in 1947. Our chapter, the W. J. Moyes chapter, ably sponsored by Miss Louise Fuller, has gone far toward furthering its purpose to promote good journalism and to give recognition to those students who have done outstanding work in this field.

Members must be either a junior or senior, must work on one of the school's publication staffs, must be in the Upper third of their class scholastically, must have done outstanding work in writing, editing, or business management, and must be recommended for membership by the principal or publication advisor. Each year the members of Quill and Scroll elect its most valuable member to whom a plaque is given.

This year Quill and Scroll held its installation at the Plaza Hotel where the new members were given their pins and membership certificates after speeches by Ann Curtner, president; Bill Wilde, vice-president; Joan Barthelme, secretary; and Guy McDaniels, treasurer.

“O” ASSOCIATION

At the annual Orenda banquet, “O’s” are awarded to not more than seven senior staff members whose co-workers have voted them the most worthy of this honor.

MRS. EDITH COX

The library is Lamar's haven of peace and quiet. A glance into this big room of learning discloses many students hastily preparing a last minute book report, gathering information for a term theme, looking at the many up-to-date periodicals, listening to the excellent record collection, inspecting the artistic displays and collections, or just taking a minute off to read some amusing fiction.

Each year the library sponsors a Library Drive during Book Week. The money contributed by the students, faculty, and clubs is spent to buy new books, periodicals, and records that are currently popular, and these help keep the library up to date and are an excellent source for many various types of information and entertainment.

LIBRARY

The library is often the scene of many interesting displays. During the Christmas season colorful pinatas from the Spanish department are on exhibit. Often the new trophies won in athletic contests or speech tournaments are found on display in the library.

The library contains over ten thousand books that are inspected and enjoyed by every Lamarite frequently during the year. There are also a number of collections of rare books and periodicals that are interesting both artistically and historically. The library's smooth functioning is due to the tireless work of the librarians, Mrs. Edith Cox and Mrs. Mabel Orman, and to the group of student assistants.

MRS. MABEL ORMAN

THE LAMAR LIBRARY—The library is a long, sun-filled room housing the books used day in and day out by the students of Lamar. It is easy to see, however, that it contains more than books. There are shelves holding the latest copies of the ninety different magazines to which the library subscribes, The Fenwick White Shelf commemorating the president of Lamar's first senior class, the Arrowhead museum case filled with interesting displays, and the table containing the phonograph and ear-phones for listening to the many records of the library's collection.

RADIO GUILD

"May I have your attention for the afternoon announcements?" This familiar plea for attention is always made by a member of Lamar's Radio Guild, responsible for all the announcements and Scripture readings given over the school's public address system.

The Guild is organized for the purpose of furthering interest in radio work and giving valuable experience to an ambitious student desiring to become a radio announcer or news commentator.

The members who practice earnestly for the radio speech contests, that are part of the regular speech tournaments, have done most outstanding work. At the meetings held on Monday afternoons, the members discuss all phases of radio operation with their excellent sponsor, Mrs. Ula Hennes.

With the motto, "Advance," for inspiration the members of La Cinquantaine, Lamar's French Club, have been very active in promoting enthusiasm in the French language and for the customs and activities of France.

Each year by selling corsages before the football games, the club raises funds to buy food and clothing to send to the needy French.

This year the officers of La Cinquantaine are: Mary Ann Gifford, president; Joan Cooley, vice-president; Evelyn Garrett, secretary; Rita Ann Burda, treasurer; Jan Marshall, program chairman. The sponsor is Mrs. Helen C. Earl.

Earl, Mary Marshall Corl, Sally Smith, Carolyn Renfrow, Lula Thomas.

Wapika is a very active organization that strives to promote interest in art through the creative abilities of its members. The word Wapika, in itself, sums up the club's attributes for it is an Indian word meaning "skill."

Wapika is responsible for the attractive displays in the front show case windows and takes an active part in beautifying the school by its art exhibits.

Miss Norma Henderson, the active sponsor, arranges many interesting visits to various local art exhibits, and is always willing to give constructive criticism and help.

In the Scholastic Art Award Contest held this year, students winning the highest award, the gold key, were Betty Bouknight, Dorothy Dakin, Mary Louise Goerner, Bonner Herren, Nancy Higginbotham, Catherine Kirkland, and Dimitry Vergun.

The officers for this year are: Mary Louise Goerner, President; Judy Owen, Vice-President; Carol Ann McVey, Secretary; and Nancie Sweeton, Treasurer.

Proudly displaying some of their paintings are Mary Louise Goerner, Judy Owen, Miss Henderson, Carol Ann McVey, and Nancie Sweeton.

Smiling broadly over their works in clay are Gayle Jenkins, Joan Haskell, Davia Hawes, and Martha Andrews.

Studying the artistic skeleton of a fish are Jo Ann Compton, Cheryl Madison, Barbara Potter, Ann Hall, and Judith Ehman.

About to produce some new masterpieces are Doris Banowsky, Shirley Ann Graves, Nancy Higginbotham, Jan Marshall, and Mary Elizabeth Spaulding.

SEQUOYHA

Sequoyha endeavors to discover and encourage creative writing among Lamar students. A look at the long list of awards won by its members shows that this goal has certainly been attained. Its members have had their work published in the Saturday Review of Literature and in the Scholastic Magazine. They have previously been awarded the Ready Writer's Cup, and the Lindsey Cup.

At the regularly held meetings, the members read and criticize the creative works of their fellow club members. New members are selected on the basis of the quality of their manuscripts which are read anonymously before the club members.

Each year Sequoyha compiles its best works into an anthology.

Under the leadership of Wayne Wiggins, President; Dana James, Vice-President; Carolyn Turner, Secretary; George Johnson, Treasurer; and Miss Margaret Buchanan, sponsor; Sequoyha has given Lamar every opportunity to bring to light any of its literary talents.

Joan Barthelme and Nancy Campbell look at the Sequoyha Book.

President Wayne Wiggins, Vice-President Dana James, Secretary Carolyn Turner, and Treasurer George Johnson discuss some important business.

Cindy Jones and Martha Bond read manuscripts submitted by prospective members.

Sarah Barrow and Lula Thomas learn more about creative writing from some books in the library.

SPEAKER'S FORUM

Lamar has always had an outstanding speech team, and this year the team has more than done its part to win recognition. Under the expert guidance of Mr. Floyd Dougherty, the team has participated victoriously in many contests throughout the state.

Among the many first-place winners are Robert Hermance and Earle Martin in extemporaneous speaking; Katharine Snow and Sydney Billingsley in debate; Brad Thompson and Perry Sue Hamilton in original oratory; and Sydney Billingsley and Brad Thompson in declamation. These awards were earned at the Adamson tournament in Dallas, the Baylor University Tournament, and the Southern Methodist University Tournament.

The officers of the Forum are: Earle Martin, president; Brad Thompson, vice-president; and Katharine Snow, secretary.

The Officers: Earle Martin, President; Brad Thompson, Vice President; and Katharine Snow, Secretary confer with Mr. Dougherty as Newton Rayzor looks on.

TEXAS JUNIOR

ACADEMY OF SCIENCE

Since the opening of Lamar, the Science Club has been very successful in promoting scientific interest among all the students.

The meetings, under the direction of Mrs. Edna W. Miner, are very interesting and instructive. Field trips are often made to the outstanding places in Houston of scientific interest, such as bakeries, dairies, and medical schools.

Each year the members participate in the Texas Junior Academy of Science Convention and have won wide recognition for themselves in the field of science.

Leading the club this year are Dan Redmond, president; June Clarke, vice-president; Mary Elizabeth Bynum, secretary; Mary Dee Cooper, treasurer; and Jerry Delony, parliamentarian.

The Officers: Mary Elizabeth Bynum, secretary; Jerry Delony, parliamentarian and historian; June Clarke, vice-president; Dan Redmond, president; Mary Dee Cooper, treasurer.

Looking at the work on an experiment in a microscope are: John Cramer, Homer Thornhill, David Dillman, Bill Bailey, Tommy Wheatley.

Looking at exhibits are: Jackie Hart, Murray Finer, Hilton Hearn, Vernon Elledge, Bill Kapp.

Discussing butterflies are: Herbert Simons, Shirley Gravis, Ronald Prescott, Barry Moss, Annot Millwee, Dick Little, Bob Perry, Katrina Thompson.

Officers: Sitting, Mary Louise Goerner, treasurer; Joan Barthelme, recording secretary; Dorothy Bayer, president; Jane Toffelmire, vice-president; June Lackenmacher, corresponding secretary. Standing, Nancie Sweeton, inter-council representative; Gayle Jenkins and Emily Boyd, Y-Teen representatives.

Y-TEEN

Y-Teen has done much to promote fellowship among Lamar girls and among girls in other chapters of Y-Teen throughout the city and state. The Club has a varied program of activities including participation in the Easter Sunrise Service, contributions to charity organizations, and promotion of girls' intramural sports. The club is divided into three chapters, the River Oaks, the Montrose, and the West University. These chapters meet with each other and with other Y-Teen Chapters at the Y.W.C.A. The officers of Y-Teen this year are Dorothy Bayer, president; Jane Toffelmire, vice-president; Joan Barthelme, recording secretary; June Lackenmacher, corresponding secretary; Mary Louise Goerner, treasurer; Gayle Jenkins and Emily Boyd, Y-Teen representatives; and Georgia Collins and Nancie Sweeton, Inter-Council representatives.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Lamar Chapter of the Junior Red Cross was organized in 1943 when the whole school was contributing to the wartime program of the National Red Cross. Now the Red Cross and its Junior Chapters are busily at work, giving aid to veterans' hospitals and to other worthwhile causes.

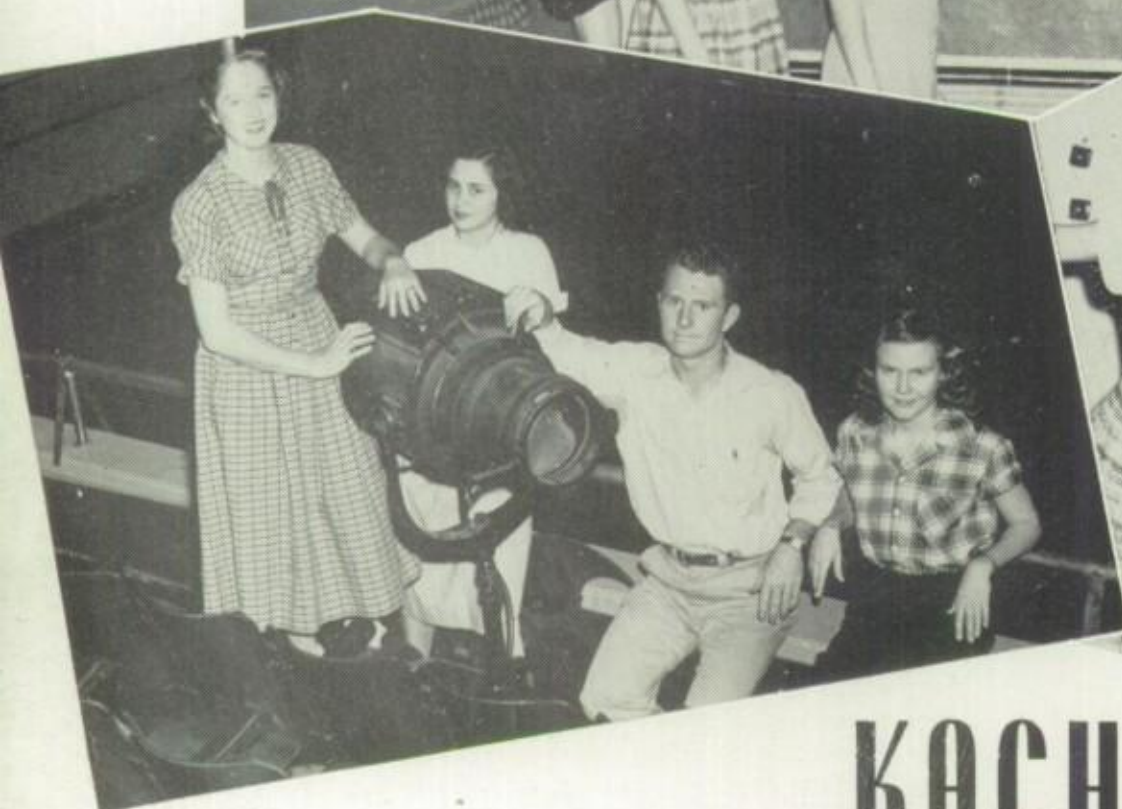

In Houston, the Junior Red Cross chapters meet every other week to discuss new projects they will undertake. At least four members from each school, including Lamar, attend the meetings. At Lamar, meetings are held frequently with Mrs. Elanor Huddleston as sponsor of the organization.

KACHINA

Lamar's dramatics department is headed by the Kachina Club and most ably sponsored by Mrs. Ula Hennes.

Above, the stage manager, Yeager Markins, demonstrates to the drama class how to make frames of colored gelatin for spotlights.

On the right the fall officers are Polly Benoit, vice-president; Ann Spears, secretary; Ann Kennerly, treasurer; and Don Lawrence, president.

The highlights of the year are the presentations of the Variety Shows and the Interscholastic League One-Act Play Contest.

LOS HABLADORES

Como esta Usted? In reply to this question, the members of Los Habladores, if feeling well, promptly reply—Muy bien, gracias.

The club was organized to increase interest in the Spanish language and in the customs of the Latin-American countries. The club is noted for its numerous charitable activities. The most outstanding project is making beautiful and brightly colored Mexican pinatas to give to the needy children at the Rusk Settlement School during the Christmas season. They also have been very generous in donating books and Spanish records to the library.

Leading the club this year is Carolyn Turner, president; Millicent Mason, vice-president; Sanni Smith, secretary; Noralee Crammond, treasurer; and Bennie Binford, member-at-large. The sponsors are Miss Helen McMasters and Miss Julia Pleasants.

CHRISTIAN STUDENT UNION

Lamar's largest club, the Christian Student Union, is composed of students who wish to express their love of God and encourage a feeling of religious toleration and good will among all Lamar students.

At the weekly meetings, outstanding leaders of various religious denominations give very interesting talks, and then different charitable projects are discussed.

Miss Hazel McCarty is the sponsor; in the fall, Janeth Westmoreland served as president; Sydney Billingsley, vice-president; Joy Nicolai, secretary; Joan Barthelme, treasurer; and Marian Stone, treasurer. In the spring Sydney Billingsley was elected president, Joan Barthelme and Mary Coy, vice-presidents; Ann Kennerly, secretary; David Foard, treasurer; and Betty Perry, chaplain.

NATIONAL THESPIAN

The National Thespian Society is an honor organization composed of those students in Lamar who have done outstanding work in the field of drama. Each Thespian has a goal to which he works. This goal is to become a "Star Thespian"; this is done by earning more than ten points in backstage work and in dramatic scenes given in class and on the stage.

The club has been very helpful to Lamar by aiding various club installations, presenting one-act plays, and participating in Variety Shows.

National Thespian was founded in 1929, and the Lamar Chapter was organized in 1946 under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ula Hennes.

FIRST ROW: Luther Rogers, Floyd Cosby, Don Lawrence, Mrs. Hennes, Bob German, Lee Munz, Yeager Markins. SPIRIT

*Boys' Athletics
Girls' Athletics
R. O. T. C.*

*When the one Great Scorer comes
To write against your name,
He writes not what you won or lost
But how you played the game.*

A PRAYER

O'Lord, help us to realize that the most supreme victory man may obtain is to play the game of life with all his heart and soul, and then be able to look back proudly, knowing that he has put forth his efforts in a manner representative of You. Help us to realize that all the losses and set backs in the GAME of LIFE are a means of Yours for providing a vision of a greater life here on earth. You made man in your own image. We humbly pray that you help us play the game as you would have us, and, thereby, near perfection.

THE MEN BEHIND THE TEAM

Lamar is blessed by the best coaching staff in the city. Their high character and knowledge of the sport has been the guiding light for many victorious Lamar teams. Fred Pepper (left) is "B" team football coach and head baseball coach; Bob Schulze (center) is head football coach; and George Hartung (right) is assistant football coach and head track coach.

THE STUDENTS BEHIND THE TEAM

Leading the fans both at games and at school are the cheerleaders. Kneeling are Sally Schmucker, Sue Eckhardt, and Georgie Leland. Standing are Newton Rayzor, Bill Van Wart, and Charlie Pace.

REDSKIN FOOTBALL . . . 1950

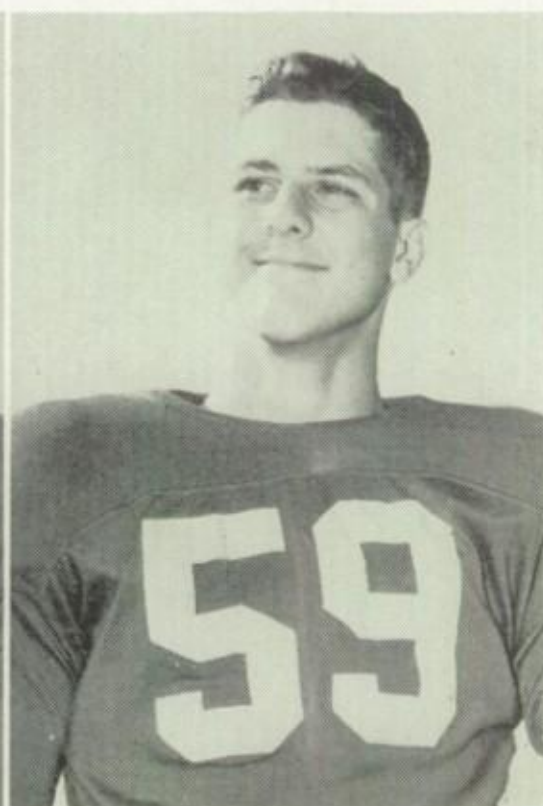

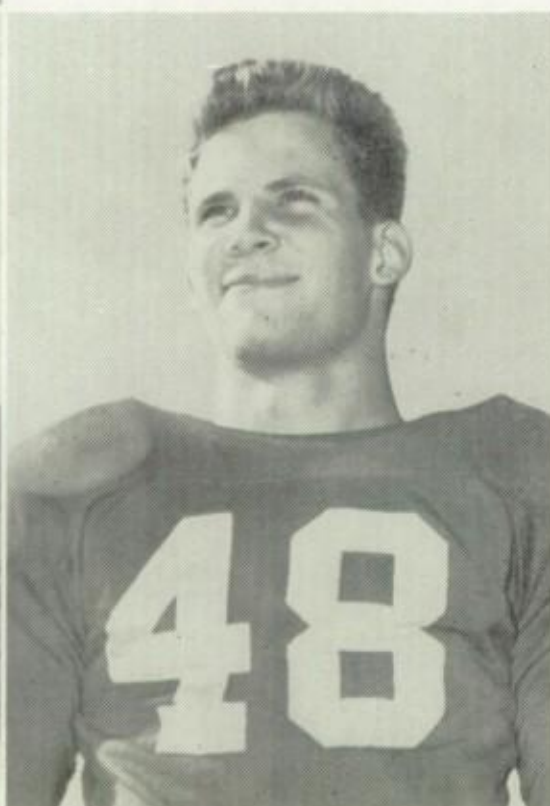

Before the season began, the Lamar Redskins were tabbed a strong power in state competition. At the end of the season, Lamar was recognized as being even stronger in 1950 than was expected. The disappointing fact is that the Redskins were unable to prove their worth in the state play-offs because of a surprising 6-0 defeat by Reagan.

Under the fine coaching of Bob Schulze and George Hartung, Lamar's potent attack amassed a total of 325 points, compared to the meager 26 points of its opponents, and was hailed by many local grid observers as the most powerful football machine ever to be produced in Houston schoolboy ranks.

As usual, coach Fred Pepper's "B" Teamers were winners of the city "B" team crown. Scored on only twice, the Papooses, displaying rare and powerful razzle dazzle, went through, over, and around all opponents.

A Gander Feather In Our Bonnet

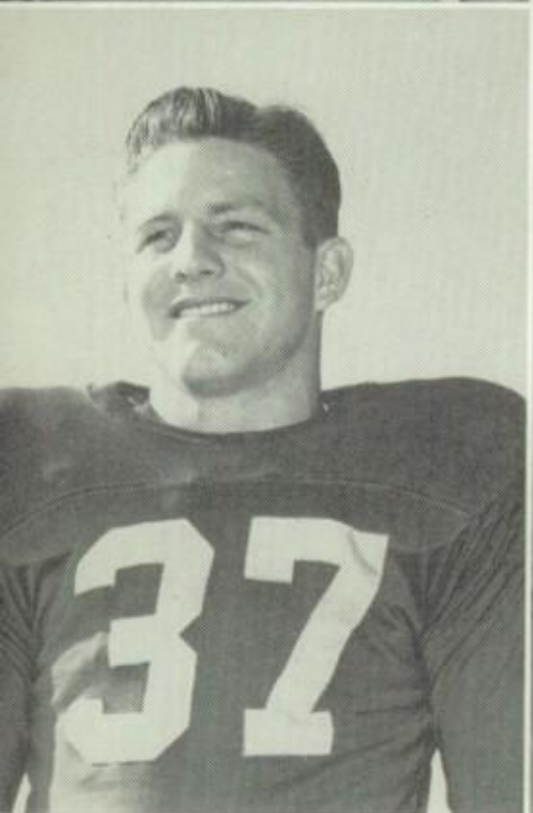

Probably the most stirring win of the season was the 13-7 victory over the Baytown Ganders, the team that later went to the state semi-finals. Showing mid-season form in their vicious blocking and tackling, Lamar sustained two drives, with Biggs and Graham going for scores. The Redskin line, making a magnificent debut, was led by Kenneth Paul, Eddy Rayburn, and Jay Riviere.

Another Win . . . We've Got What It Takes

Forest Avenue High of Dallas could offer little resistance to the powerful red-shirted aggregation which scored its second win of the season, 27-0. Holding Forest to only one first down and 15 yards rushing, the Lamar defense kept the spotlight from start to finish. The Redskin offense held its own, however, gaining 321 yards from scrimmage. Larry Graham impressed all by running for three touchdowns and passing to Fred Lange for a fourth.

We Take Many Scalps in Galveston

Lamar, with all of its guns blazing, rolled over Galveston 60-0. It was a touchdown story all the way with the individual standout being the team itself. Penalties, long runs, pass interceptions, and stellar defensive play highlighted the fracas. Kenneth Horton made several long gains as did many other Redskin backs. Coach Schulze used his entire team, and the scoring was evenly spread and frequent, which indicated the team's depth and versatility.

Here We Come, San Jac

In their last game before city competition Lamar piled up nearly 500 yards rushing and crushed Corpus Christi's Miller High 40-0. The Corpus Christi Caller summarized the game thus: "The Redskins, boasting one of the finest arrays of talent in Texas football today, ran roughshod over the outclassed Bucs."

BIGGS CARRIES AGAINST SAN JAC

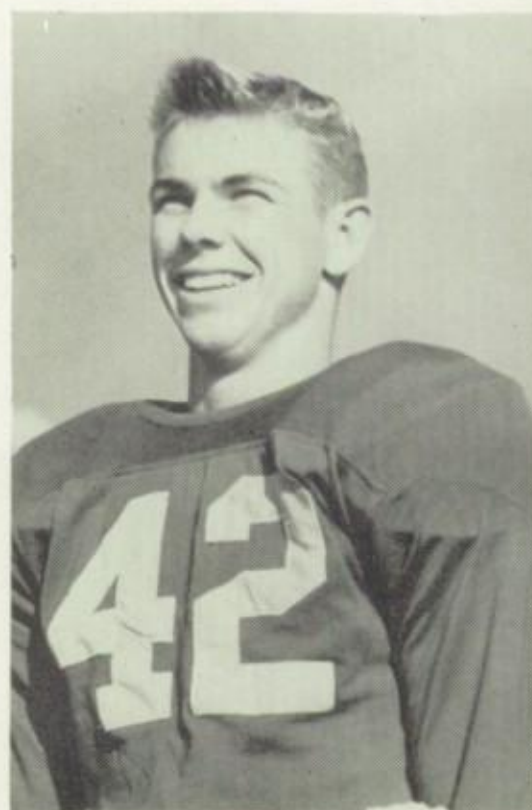

A Sweet Victory We Take The Bears

The Redskins remained undefeated as they toppled a fighting San Jacinto team 26-13. After appearing somewhat sluggish in the first half, the Schulzemen came to life in the later stages of the game and went for three touchdowns. Larry Graham and Julio Laguarda were consistent gainers for the Indians while the Bears' Don Wilson, who stopped red-shirted ball carriers time and again, was the outstanding lineman.

The Tigers Feel Our Tomahawk

The Indian offense was again the big show as Sam Houston was crushed beneath the Redskin steamroller. Scoring on the third play from scrimmage, Lamar was never in trouble. As in most of the other games, the Redskin reserves played much of the game. Downfield blocking by Kenneth Paul and the running of Larry Graham made a staggering impression on the Tigers.

A Panther Skin For Our Teepee

The Lamar offense was smooth in its 32-0 conquest of the Jeff Davis Panthers. The speedy backs of Davis had little success against the stone wall line of Lamar. Scoring only six points the first half, the Indians unleashed a powerful second half drive for 26 points.

Reagan 6, Lamar 0 That's It

Although the Redskins made 13 first downs to Reagan's 4 and more than doubled their opponents yardage gained, they bowed to a spirited Reagan crew 6-0. Consistently penetrating the twenty yard line and piling up sufficient yardage to win, the Braves definitely had the breaks against them, being unable to push across the needed score. The defensive play of Kenneth Horton and Jay Riviere was one of the many outstanding performances of the Schulzemen that cold November night.

One For The Coaches

In a game dedicated to the coaches, the Lamar Redskins, playing the hard driving football they were accustomed to, crushed the Austin Mustangs 52-0. This rebound after defeat distinguished the mettle of the true champion, which Lamar was. A tribute goes to Paine, Lange, Rayburn, Paul, Montgomery, Riviere, Jax, and Rogers for a bang up defensive game. The Redskin defense was impregnable and once held the Mustangs four downs on the goal line.

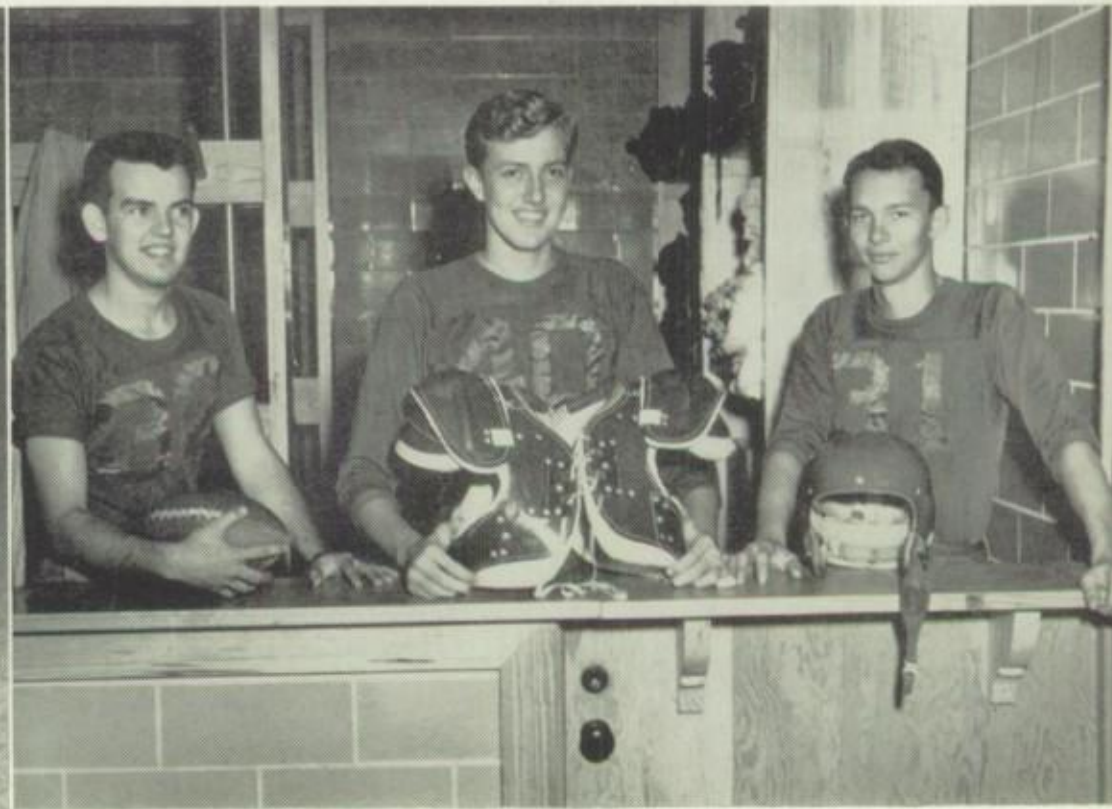

The Senior's Finale

The powerful red-shirted aggregation won its last victory for 1950 when it smothered Milby, 41-0. Playing their last game in the red and blue of Lamar were many seniors. The starting lineup was an all senior bunch including Louis Paine, Clifford Ownby, All-State Kenneth Paul, Lew Harpold, Jay Riviere, Fred Duckett, Jimmy Jax, Kenneth Horton, O. T. Halliday, Tom Biggs, and All-American Larry Graham.

STATE CHAMPS . .

At the beginning of the season Coach Donald Loncope predicted that the Redskins would become champions. This prophesy steadily changed from hope to reality as the season progressed, with the State Tournament the climax of a brilliant season.

The Redskins began the season by taking runner-up honors in the Bryan Tournament. Then they won the San Antonio Tournament, and took runner-up honors in the Houston Jaycee Tournament, losing by only two points to a fired up Davis crew.

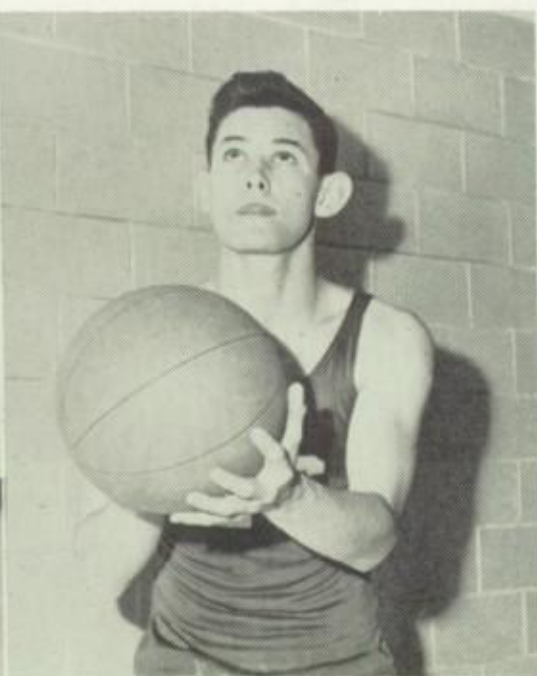

The city race moved fast with the Redskins losing only two games, both of which were lost after the city championship was secure. The game that cinched a place for the Indians was the Austin game, which will long be remembered for its thrilling climax.

BASKETBALL

On Friday, March 5, the Lamar firemen invaded Dallas, and by many sports writers and spectators were called "The Best Basketball Team in Texas High Schools". It was the red-hot fastbreak tactics of a Longcope team, plus an uncanny eye for the basket that left the Dallas gym sizzling. Their 78 points compiled in the final game went on the record book as the highest score ever registered in a state tournament, anywhere in Texas.

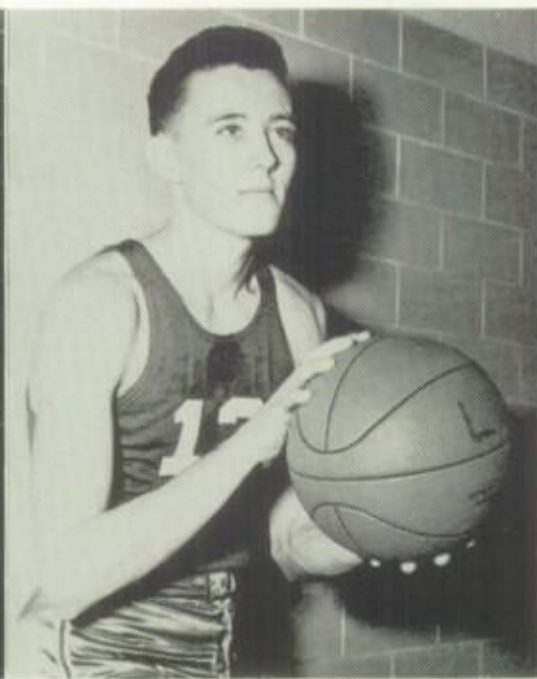

Outstanding individuals throughout the season were Tommy Hill and Philip Kidd, both of whom were elected all-city and all-state. Also deserving praise is the ingenious Coach Longcope, whom the ORENDA calls "The Coach of the Year."

STATE TRACK CH

In 1950 Lamar won its first state championship in an Interscholastic League Sport. This title was copped by George Hartung's well rounded cinder squad. Larry Graham's three first places led the Redskins and won scoring honors for the state meet.

In the early meets Lamar was never at full strength with individuals holding the spotlight. The mile relay team composed of Dick Mayor, Joe Russo, John Joiner, and Ralph Carson were consistent point getters in all the meets, as was Henry Dickson in the high jump.

Lamar had little competition in the city meet scoring 65 points compared to the next place team, which had 35½ points. The 440 yard relay team of Stuart Lawrence, Tom Biggs, Billy Word, and Larry Graham was impressive in tying the city record of 43.7 seconds. Graham also won the broad jump and tied the city high hurdles record of 14.9 seconds. Dickson won the high jump, Bob Rowland the shot put, Joiner took the 440 yard run, and Steve Sims copped the pole vault title to round out the first places for the red shirted aggregation from Lamar.

In the state meet Graham tied the state high hurdles record of 14.7 seconds and won the broad jump while both relay teams took firsts.

The 1951 team will be built around a nucleus of Lettermen Graham, Dickson, Sims, co-captains Mayor and Biggs, John Montgomery, and David Dale. Returning squadmen and many promising newcomers also bolster the Redskin's chances for the coming 1951 season.

The 1951 outlook for Lamar's baseball team is much brighter than that of 1950. With several lettermen returning from the sixth place squad of last year, the Redskins have the makings of a first division club.

Returning lettermen are Rit Webb, second base; Richard Prater, catcher; Garland Fielder, outfield; Laddie Kubena, pitcher; Page Rogers, third base; Julio Laguarda, third base and catcher; and Larry Hensarling, outfield. Hensarling was the team's leading hitter, and a member of last year's all-city nine.

STATE SWIM CHAMPS

It has become the expected, rather than the unusual, for Lamar swimmers to take the State Championship. No less is expected from Redskin tankmen this season.

Mr. Ned L. Gochenour, who is serving his first year as the Indian's head coach, is blessed with eleven lettermen from last year's championship squad. They are: Charlton Hadden, Bill Wilde, Don Demming, Dave McComb, Larry Schmucker, David Foard, Warner Merritt, Franklin Gajewsky, Dave Fennekohl, Larry Graham, and Bill Beggs. Hadden and Wilde are acting co-captains.

CHEROKEE

Every girl in Lamar belongs to Cherokee, the club for girls' sports.

Points are awarded for each tournament entered and the three girls that compile the greatest number of points are rewarded by receiving silver Cherokee bracelets. For every girl that takes an active part in five sports, win or lose, there is a Cherokee Rose emblem.

Cherokee has done a wonderful job in promoting interest in all girls' sports and every Lamar girl is an enthusiastic member.

Competition is keen in the fields of badminton, tennis, volleyball, basketball, archery, softball, riflery, bowling, swimming and golf.

The sponsors of this club are Mrs. May Bourgeois, Mrs. Ruth Mottley, and Miss Helen Dvoracek.

Perhaps you aren't a poetry contest winner or a dramatics enthusiast, but whatever talents you have in the field of athletics are brought to the front with the help of Lamar's girls' physical education department. Every girl participates in one of the daily gym classes, and for the more energetic there are many intramural tournaments after school hours.

The physical education program is carefully planned to include every beneficial activity, and every girl is closely supervised from her first day as a sophomore to her last day as a senior. For the girls that have done outstanding work in the gym classes there is the honor of becoming a gym leader. These leaders are chosen by the gym teachers to help them instruct the girls, take care of the equipment, and do whatever is necessary to keep the classes running smoothly.

With the beginning of school in September comes the exhilarating volleyball games enjoyed by everyone. Regardless of old man weather everyone eagerly participates in the exciting class volleyball tournaments.

For those with a flair for aiming and shooting there are archery and riflery. These two sports have many enthusiastic followers, and we have turned out some exceptionally good marksmen!

Any girl who wishes to learn to swim or to perfect skills already acquired has a wonderful opportunity in Lamar's big swimming pool.

If you are good at swinging a racket you are right at home playing badminton or tennis.

Basketball is one of the girls' favorite sports as you can tell by the excited screams coming from the girls' gym whenever someone makes a basket.

The golfers have made a fine showing for themselves in this sport that has recently been added to the long list of other sports.

With the coming of spring comes many long hours of softball and the after effects of a sunburned nose. But it was lots of fun and well worth it!

What girl can forget the way her arms and legs felt on the day after her first modern dance exercise class? These classes are among the girls' top favorites and offer a chance of acquiring excellent rhythm and suppleness of body.

Under the expert direction of Mrs. Ruth Mottley, Mrs. May Bourgeois, Miss Helen Dvoracek, and Mrs. Frances Rockwell, the physical education classes offer many hours of happy diversion.

R.O.T.C: OFFICER'S CLUB

The Reserve Officer's Training Corps Unit is Lamar's only military club. The officers and sponsors of the R.O.T.C. strive to promote interest in military activities, learn about army tactics, and also to have a well rounded social life.

Each year the Unit takes part in parades and competitive inspections in which they have won outstanding recognition.

Active socially, the club sponsors various outings and dances, and their main social event of the year is the Officers' Ball.

The club's sponsor is Captain Carl H. Smith, United States Army.

Lamar's Beauties . . .

February 28, 1951

Miss Katharine Snow, Editor
1951 "Orenda"
Lamar High School
Houston, Texas

Dear Miss Snow:

Again, thank you for the honor and the pleasure of selecting the most beautiful girls of your school.

As for my psychology of beauty, I am listing below the type of beauty each of the girls typifies to me.

1. JUDITH EHMAN - Natural Beauty
2. DOLORES McCLELLAN - Vivacious Beauty
3. BYNA TAYLOR - Candlelight Beauty
4. SUE ECKHARDT - Haunting Beauty
5. JANETH WESTMORELAND - Gay Beauty
6. GLORIA GILLESPIE - Pert Beauty
7. BETTY CLAIRE MAYO - Intelligent Beauty
8. MARY MARSHALL CORL - Dramatic Beauty
9. ANN SPEARS - Striking Beauty

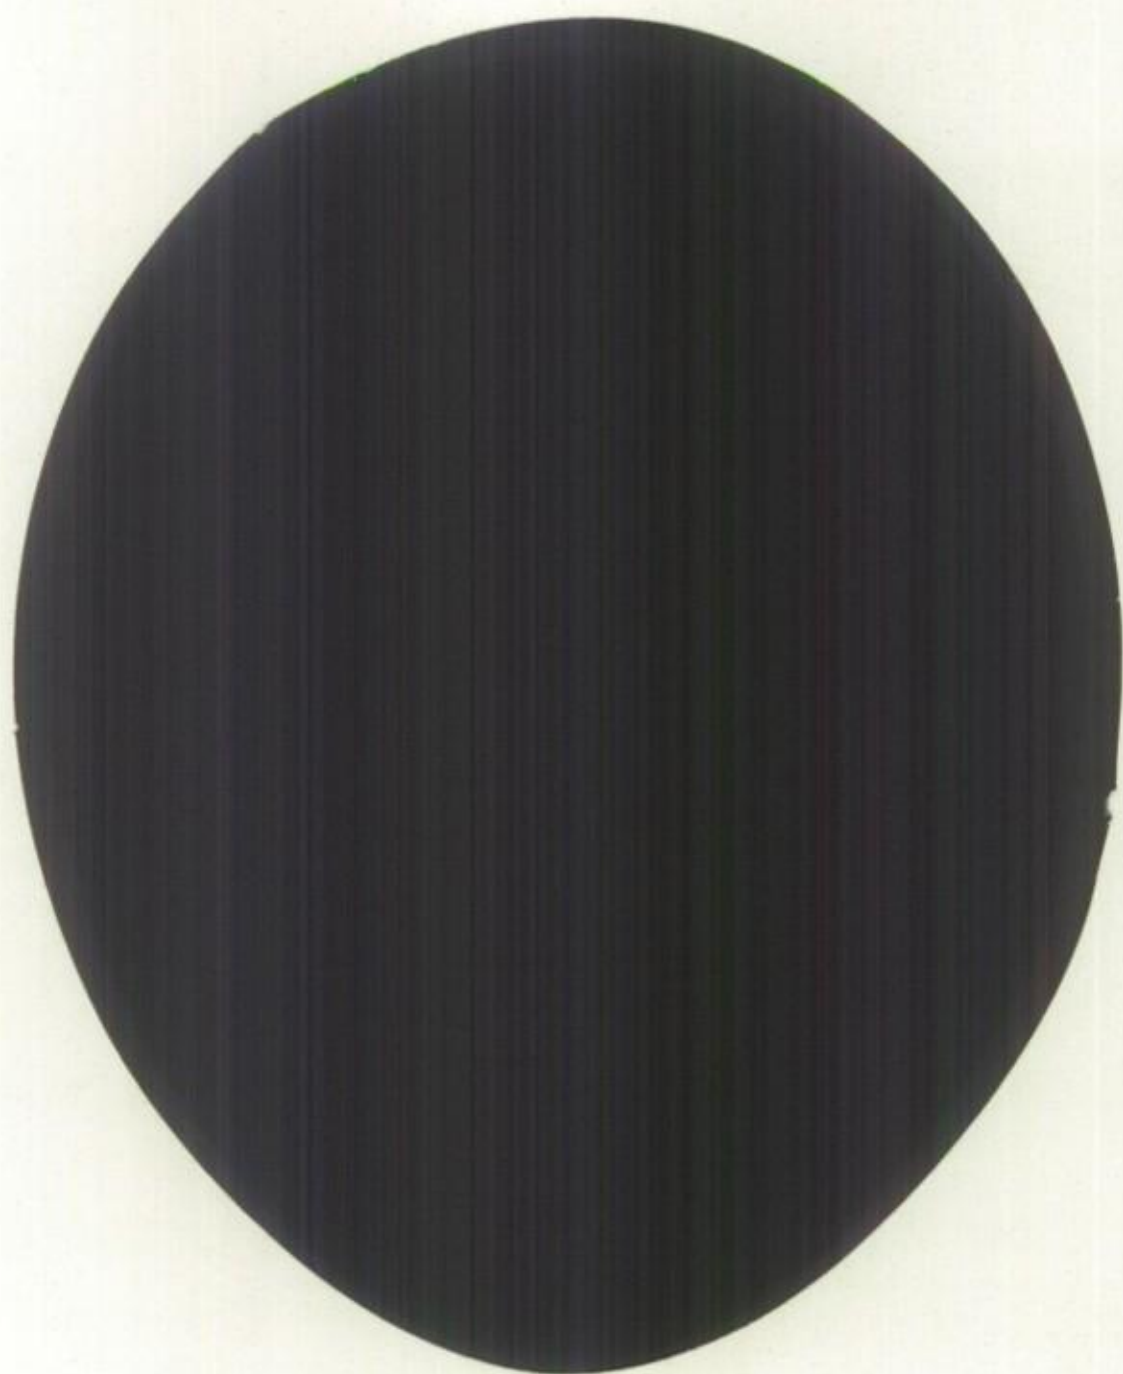

My very best wishes to all.

Cordially,

Al Capp

HEART

An abstract graphic design featuring a large black circle in the lower-left quadrant. Three black lines radiate from the top-right edge of the circle towards the upper right. A thick black horizontal bar spans the bottom of the page, and two vertical black lines are positioned on the right side, forming a partial frame.

Student Life

Postscripts

'49-'50

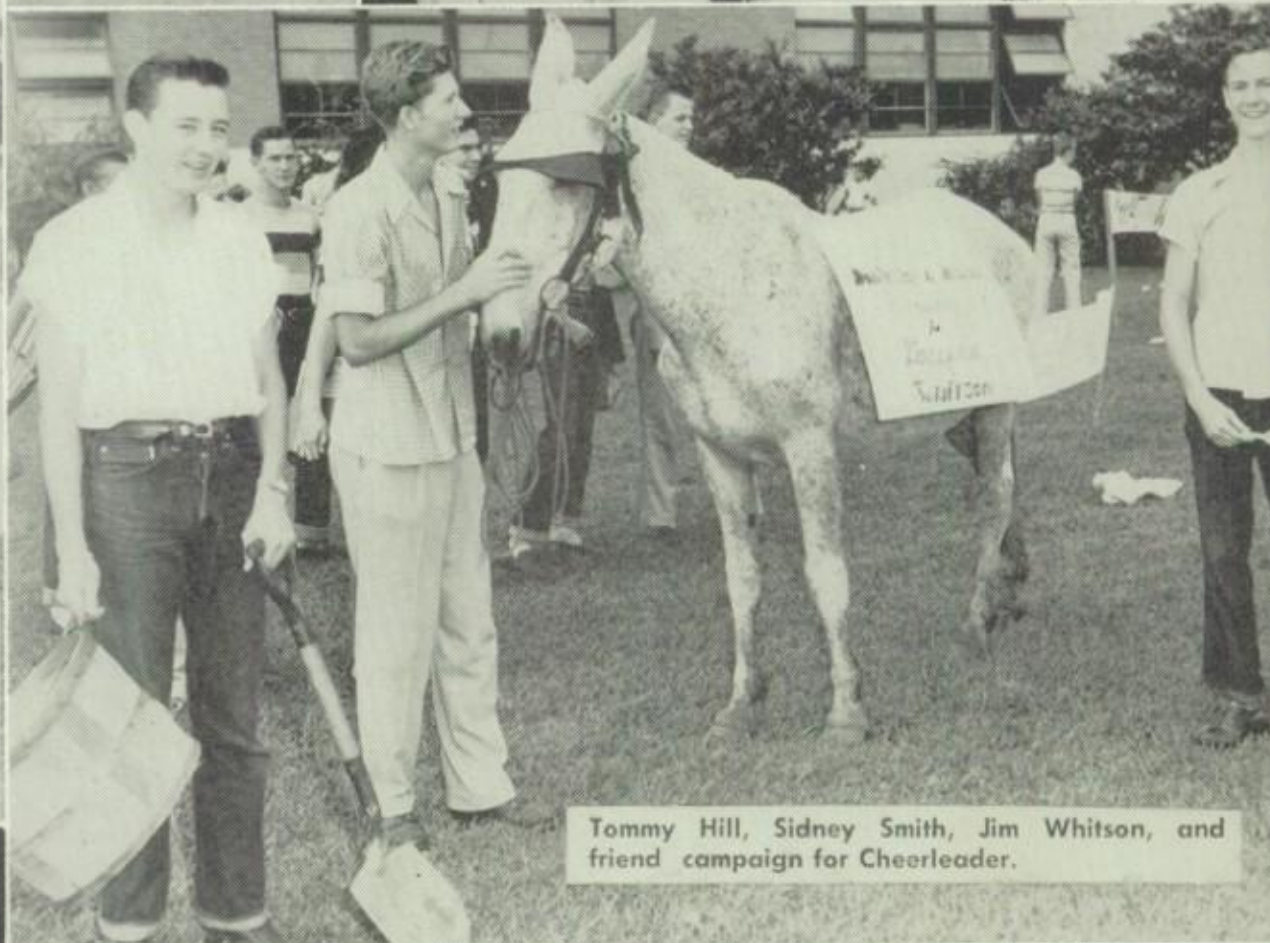

King Claude Hooton crowns Shari Collins, May Queen of 1950 as the Court looks on.

Jane Lawhon serves coffee to the evaluators.

Lucien Warner, Peggy Sanderford, Nancie Sweeton, and Polly Benoit campaign for "Georgie" with the help of Robert Arrington and his Crosley.

Lamar Swimmers repeat as State Champs.

Preludes

'50-'51

Rah Rah boys Pace, Rayzor and Van Wart send the team off to Corpus as Brill fights his way into the picture.

Rit Webb signs up Juniors and Sophomores for their Orenda pictures.

Judith Ehman, Linda Woolley, and Mary Louise Goerner show how they can "can-can" in the first variety show.

Caught "partying" at the Pow Wow Pay Dance are Mary Settegast, "man about town" Gus Shill, Charles Herron, "Wiggles" Bertrand, and Bryan Stroe.

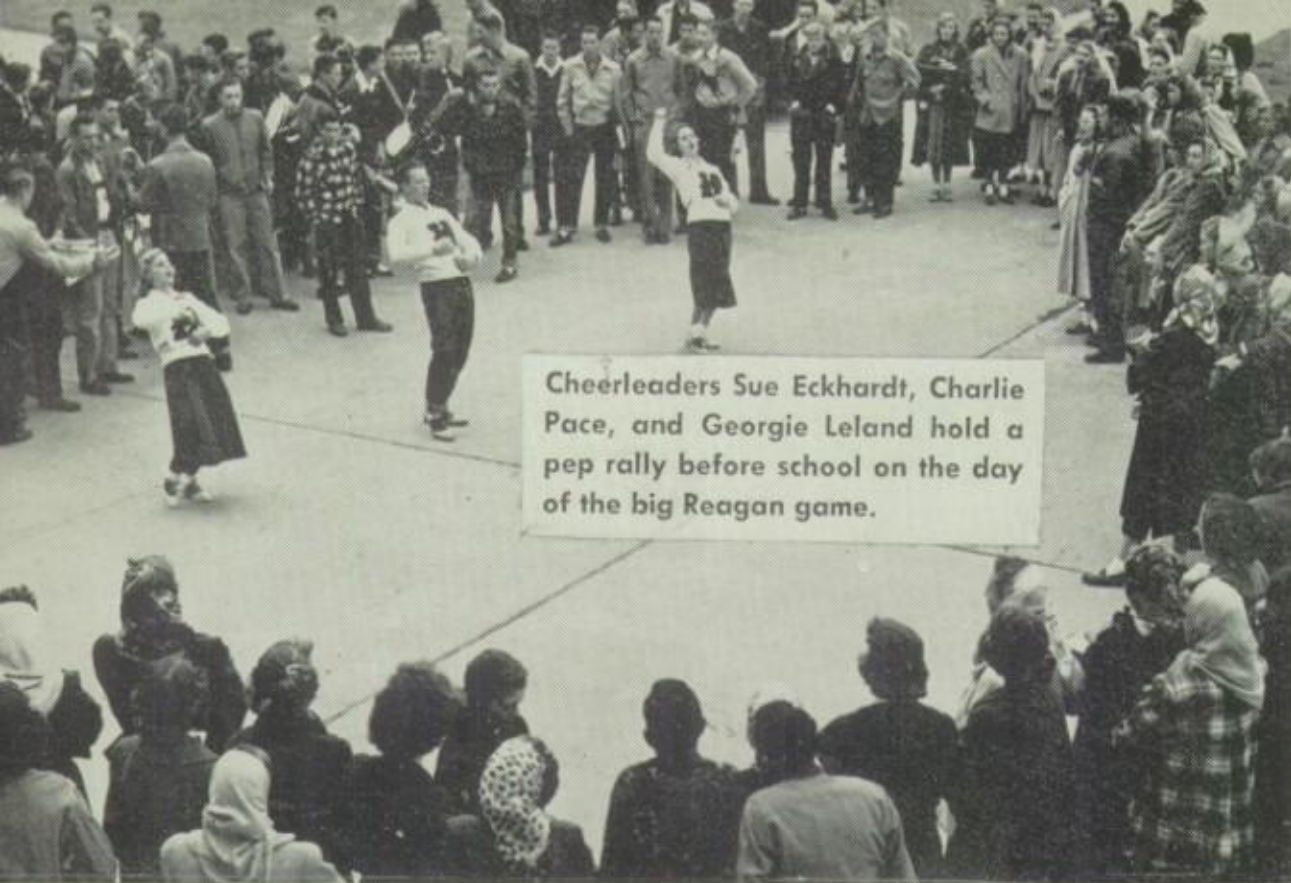

Joe Eckhardt and Bobbie Lou Turrentine lead Georgie Land, Jane Zimmer, Teddy Moody, Barbara Lee Clements the Palamar parade to the Darktown Strutters Ball.

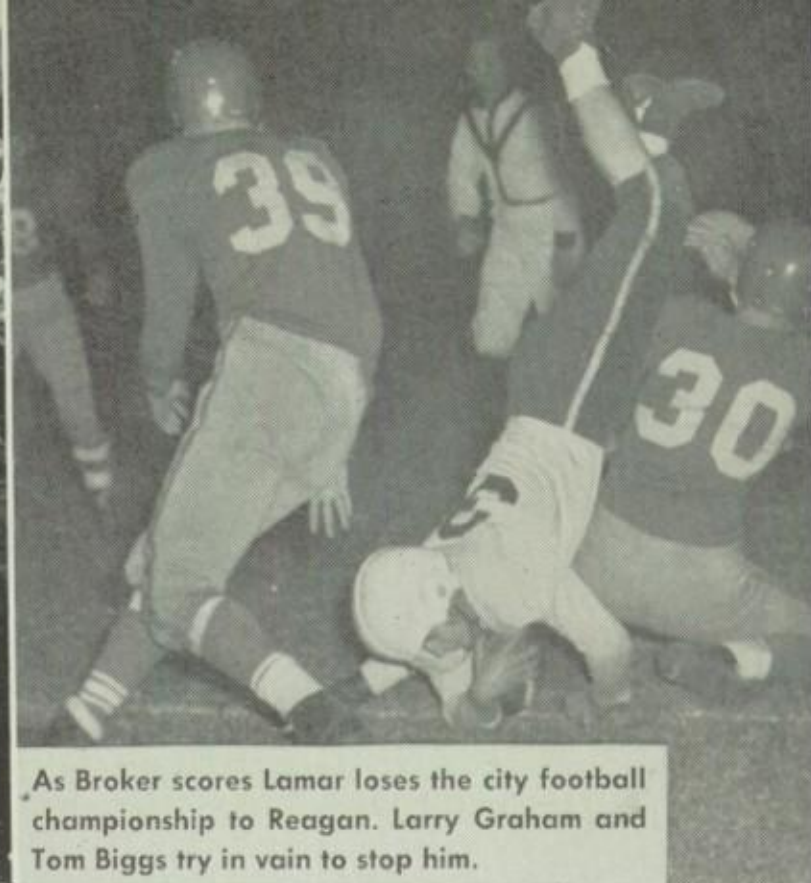

Lamars music lovers enjoy a concert by the "Bar Fly Boys."

Cheerleaders Sue Eckhardt, Charlie Pace, and Georgie Leland hold a pep rally before school on the day of the big Reagan game.

As Broker scores Lamar loses the city football championship to Reagan. Larry Graham and Tom Biggs try in vain to stop him.

"Johnny Rebs" John Crowe, Jack Woods, Wade Melton and Steve Childress, smile over the unidentified dead yankee and advertise the Irari dance.

Among the crowd at Princes celebrating a football victory are Sidney Billingsley, Ernest Stone, Ralph Emerson, Betty Templeton, John Burns, Earl Luetge, Jimmy Reese, and Ann Nesmith.

Lamar's contribution to "The Mikado;" Gwynn Corbell, Donald Demming, Gregory Catlow, Pat Fenoglio, Van Williams, Barbara Jean Cook, Don Lawrence, and Norman Brady.

Billy Wohn, Betty Belsher, Jim Whitson, Carolyn Kongabel, Dittman Harrison, and Linda Wiggs enjoy the Palamar Formal.

Niwauna's Mary Settegast, Bebe Godley, Helen Riddick, Julie Peddie, Mary Louise Townes, and Mary Peterson deliver a singing valentine to Wick "Hook" Vennard as Bill Wilde and Bobby Doty enthusiastically heckle him.

Harnett T. Kane, a noted Louisiana author who spoke at Lamar, autographs a copy of his latest book for Mr. Moyes.

Ramal officers Newton Rayzor, Charlton Hadden, Eddy Raburn, Wick Vennard, Jack McComb, Rit Webb, J. Fred Duckett, Bill K. Wilde, and dates Sheryl McKelvy, Sally Schmucker, Edith More, Byna Taylor, Elsa Holland — club sweetheart, Polly Benoit, Sally Stedman and Mary Hooton pose at the Christmas Formal.

Lamar's favorite pastime is making announcements over the P. A. system. Don Lawrence assists Myrtle McPhail as Jon Marshall, Helen Riddick, and half of the Ryba combination wait in line.

Ramal Mulletts Charles Brown, George Lewis, and Bill Shirley serve water to the senior members, before pledging was outlawed.

Stuffing themselves at the Niwauna formal are Caroline Schrivner, John Joiner, Helen Riddick, and Ronnie Tynes. In the background, Jody Dalton, Laddie Kubena, Carolyn Jones, and Harvey Smith.

Among the crowd at Bill Williams', Lamar's favorite hangout are Don Deming, Tommy Davies, Steve Childress, Noble Robinson, Richard Thompson, Myrna Mugford, Charlie Pace, Jane Hamner, Buddy Howard, George Sauer, and Sally Schmucker. In the background, Sidney Smith.

Almost all students went out with the electricity, but Katharine Snow, Cathy O'Donnell and Tom Biggs braved the cold, as Mr. Moyes rings the bell by hand.

It's a tense moment for Coach Don Longcope as he watches his team win the state basketball championship.

Sophomores are always easy prey for ambitious salesmen. Here Wanda Spruce, Mary Settegast, and Mary Louise Townes force inter-squad football tickets on Jack Holland and Chris Butos.

carnival time at Lamar. Celebrating, are Chums Nancie Sweeton, Martha Wainwright, June Lakenmacher, Nancy Ackly, June Garrison, Harriet Davis, and Pat Cline.

Guy McDaniels, editor of the Lancer, congratulates the incoming editor, Joan Barthelme.

Playing Chess in study hall is a favorite pastime around Lamar. Here mental giants, Murphy Scurry and Dave Miller, contemplate their next move as Mack Milner and Betty Belsher look on.

Football player Miller Porter persuades Bobby Clark to give him a new suit.

John Sanders, Sydney Billingsley, John Burns, Bob Arrington, and Ed Mainous show off their new R. O. T. C. uniforms.

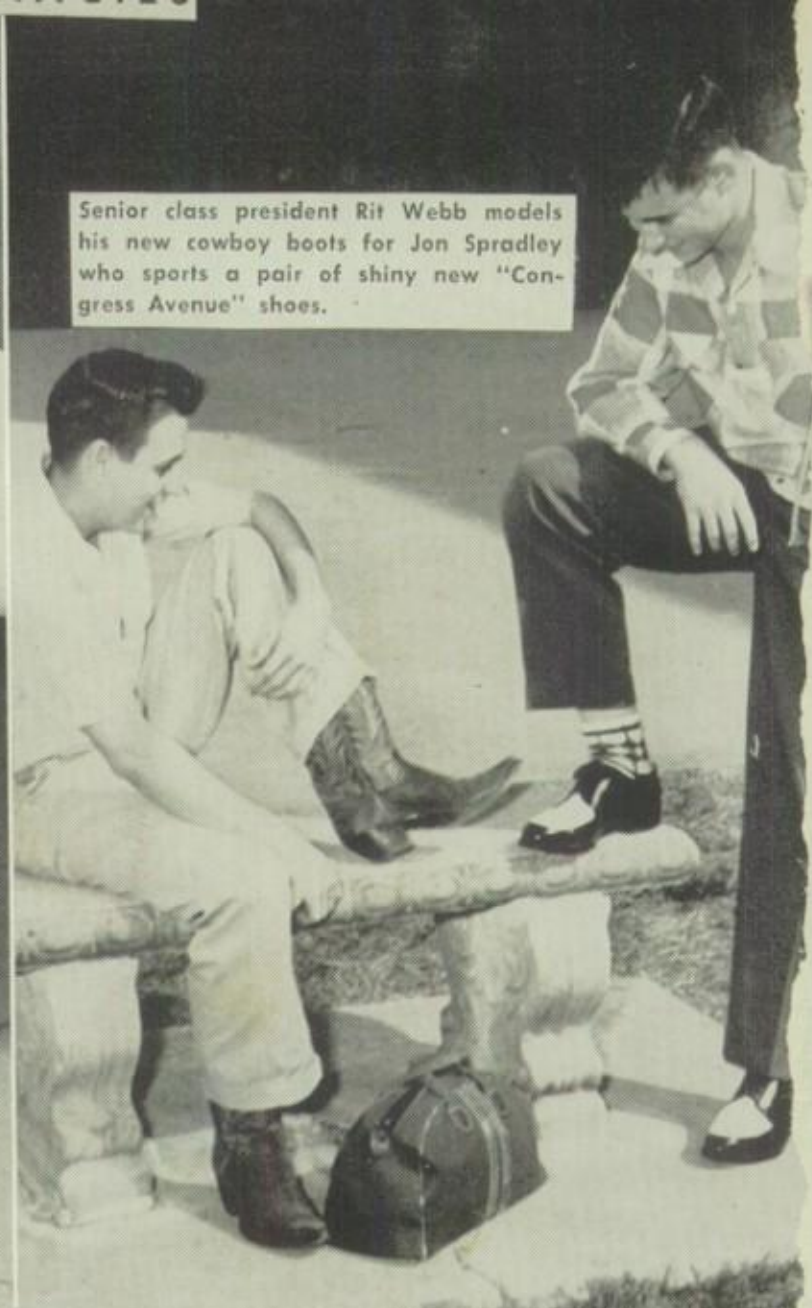

A Lamar variety show features Sally Prince, Rosetta McGregor, and Ann Nicholl wearing Western boots, a teenage fad.

From Orenda Editor, Katharine Snow, to Sophomore Allie Kelly, Lamar girls wear tailored skirts and blouses.

Senior class president Rit Webb models his new cowboy boots for Jon Spradley who sports a pair of shiny new "Congress Avenue" shoes.

Lamar girls are not peasants, but on windy days it's hard to tell as Bebe Godly, Bobby Jean Roy, and Barbara Lee Clements demonstrate.

Virginia Diamond, Beverly Beavers, and Kay Chaffee exhibit dolls for table decorations in Easter Contest.

FINALE : Publishing the Orenda was a task not wholly completed through the efforts of the staff. There are many students and faculty members whose help was invaluable. Laurels must be given to Don Beeth and Bob Maxwell who helped with the photography, and to David Dale who willingly transported reams of copy to the engraver • • • We owe appreciation to the teachers, especially those of the Girls' Physical Education Department, who allowed us to turn their classes topsy turvy. Certainly we must also thank Mrs. Ferrell for giving us seemingly endless lists and Mrs. Leavell for the use of her phone at all times • • • Thus ends Volume XIII of the "Orenda." We hope that you have read it, that you will keep it, and that from time to time you will glance through it. We hope that it will always serve as an accurate and faithful record of the year 1951 at Lamar.
